

Utah's "Lemon Law" requires that if a new vehicle is replaced or repurchased by a manufacturer due to an alleged "nonconformity," that the Utah title be stamped with a "brand" stating "MANUFACTURER BUYBACK NONCONFORMING VEHICLE." Utah law defines a nonconformity as:

"a defect, malfunction, or condition that fails to conform to the express warranty, or substantially impairs the use, safety, or value of a motor vehicle." ( 41-3-407 UCA )

However, the law states a "nonconformity" does NOT include a defect, malfunction, or condition that results from an accident, abuse, neglect, modification or alteration of a motor vehicle by a person other than the manufacturer, its authorized agent or a dealer.

The law also requires the manufacturer or any future seller (dealer or individual) to disclose to a potential buyer, in writing, and in a "clear and conspicuous manner," the fact that the vehicle is a manufacturer buyback.

Utah statute requires the following disclosure language to be contained in each contract for the sale or lease of a buyback vehicle or a nonconforming vehicle to a consumer.
